Re: Everytown for Gun Safety Action Fund, Inc. v. Defcad, Inc., No. 21-cv-8704 (PGG)

DEFENDANTS' SUPPLEMENTAL LETTER IN FURTHER SUPPORT OF EMERGENCY LETTER MOTION TO ADJOURN PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION
HEARING AND EXTEND TIME FOR SUPPLEMENTAL SUBMISSIONS

Dear Judge Gardephe:

We represent defendants Defcad, Inc., Phillip Royster, Defcad User xYeezySZN, Odysee User xYeezySZN, The Catalog, Defcad User Freeman1337, and Twitter User xYeezySZN.

Please accept this letter in further support of Defendants' Emergency Letter Motion to Adjourn Preliminary Injunction Hearing and Extend Time for Supplemental Submissions, filed with the Court yesterday.

I write to inform the Court that this morning I tested positive for Covid-19 and was diagnosed with mild to moderate symptomatic disease. As such, I am required to isolate for at least five days and my symptoms have me spending most of my time resting in bed.

In addition to all of the reasons presented in our initial moving papers yesterday, this new development plainly entitles the Defendants to the relief requested.

Thank you for your attention in this regard.

MEMO ENDORSED

The parties' supplemental submission concerning the pending opposition for a preliminary injunction and personal jurisdiction will be submitted by June 1, 2022. There will be no responsive papers. The hearing date is adjourned to June 8, 2022 at 3:30 p.m.

SO ORDERED:

Paul G. Gardephe, U.S.D.J.
Date: May 25, 2022
